PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Technology leader with 20+ years building enterprise software across four continents. Proven track record leading teams of dozens, delivering products showcased on global stages, and managing critical integrations under extreme pressure. Founded Geahsoft in 2024—an AI consulting and custom software development practice—after a senior career at Oracle, Thomson Reuters, Accenture, and other major organizations.

Long Story Short: Consulting work revealed problems deep enough to build products around. Applicora is a career and talent AI platform redefining hiring. Agentino is an AI-powered automation platform for service businesses, turning completed jobs into repeat revenue. Both solve real gaps in their markets.
